

You Turned One

David Choi

A gift so magical, so wonderful
Moments to capture with everyone
Balloons and flowers, confetti everywhere
So soon, can you believe it? Let's celebrate the year

You turned one
You turned one
My darling, oh my darling
You turned one today
You turned one
You turned one
Today is your day
'Cause you turned one

Uh, can you slow down, please?

You're growing up, we're showing love
Oh, how we wonder what you'll become

An athlete, a poet
Will you invent a time machine?
Or maybe become a singer
Start a group like The Supremes

You turned one
You turned one
My darling, oh my darling
You turned one today
You turned one
You turned one
Today is your day
'Cause you turned one

Goes the days of lullabies
Golden times going by

You turned one
You turned one
My darling, oh my darling
You turned one today
You turned one
You turned one
Today is your day
'Cause you turned one
Today is your day
'Cause you turned one
Oh, today my baby
You turned one
