

Avalanche

David Cook

I feel alive beside you
And all at once
I am whole again.
We fall into each other
Your atmosphere
Is all I'm breathing in
And in this rush
We are crushed

Carry me down
Roll it in your arms
Cause' I can't remember
Ever falling this hard
Tell me tonight,
All that we have been
Was it nothin' more
Than a noise inside my head
Crashing down, crashing down,
In your avalanche.
In your avalanche.

These scars we wear remind us
The more we change
The more we're all the same
Swept up in this emotion
We fumble through and make the same mistakes
Cause' we are led
To the edge

Carry me down
Roll it in your arms
I can't remember
Ever falling this hard
Tell me tonight
All that we have been
Was it nothin' more
Than a noise inside my head
Crashing down, crashing down,
In your avalanche
Crashing down, crashing down,

Carry me down
Roll it in your arms
Cause I can't remember
Ever falling this hard
Tell me tonight
All that we have been
Was it nothin' more
Than a noise inside my head

Carry me down
Roll it in your arms
Cause I can't remember
Tell me tonight
All that we have been
Was it nothin more

Than a noise inside our heads
Crashing down, crashing down...

Was it nothing more
Than a noise inside our heads
Crashing down
Crashing down

I feel alive beside you
Than all at once I am whole again...
