

Better Than Me

David Cook

You ain't even scared
Cause you know I know you will conquer it
Yeah you're finally getting there
I wish I had it all cause I'd offer it

And it feels like a last stop
And it feels like an open wound
Whatever it is that you did to me
It didn't have to be so soon

Go on, go on
Go be better than me
Go on, go on
Go be better than me
Go be better than me
Go on
Go on

Look beneath your feet
The road rolls out in front of you
And your soul to keep
In the arms of Madison Avenue

And it hits like a running train and it hurts like being alive
If you really gave up
Then why'd you tell me
I've become the shadow
You the light

Go on, go on
Go be better than me
Go on, go be better than me
Go on, go on
Go be better than me
Go be better than me
Go bet better, go be better
Go on
Go on

All the hot lights and the famous streets
It's just the first step in forgetting me

Go on, go on
Go be better than me
Go on, go be better than me
Go on, go on
Go be better than me
Go be better than me
Go be better, go be better
Go on
Go on
