

Can't Get Enough

David Dallas

No wonder why they can't get enough. This is more of that look but don't touch, don't watch tv watch me. My team is to much we did it our way from the jump and they can't get enough. This is more of that look but don't touch. Don't watch tv watch me, my team is to much we did it our from the jump and they can't get enough.

Don't get it twisted when I come through bet the conversation shifts in an instant, high got the juice now got the girls acting pretty loose now. Should put your head in a noose now, if you r trying to tangle with the boy. What's the use now, no glass here, my stocks through the roof now. Boy I been beastin. You know I can get real down rolling round with Jordan in the Benz with the roof down, dropping all the new sounds fucker. Asking who to watch, man ain't no other all eyes on me. Been here big brother your CCTV me you see I'm running, you CCTV them you see luggage dead weight. Only one thing to ask how good is there chase, I'm way out front and ain't sticking back with there pace. It's a very rare case, so no wonder why they can't get enough.

This is more of that look but don't touch, don't watch tv watch me. My team is to much we did it our way from the jump and they can't get enough. This is more of that look but don't touch. Don't watch tv watch me, my team is to much we did it our from the jump and they can't get enough, can't get enough, can't get enough, ah, can't get enough, can't get enough, can't get enough, Tell it like it is, tell it like it is. Yeah, yeah, yeah.

Can't get a break though since day 0, only thing I can't step a way though. Used to wait for the pesos but they came slow. Last tour put the whole crew on the payroll, say no to the comballs with the same old, off brand flows that be kicking for the label hoping that the radio, though we ain't the same bro I'm a Michael Corleone you a Fredo your afraid bro your a fraud tryna lay low all of the above went to [?] can't complain though, I be kicking those can't be contained flows lookin' like I'm heaven sent, I should rock a halo, on the same note you should catch a grenade though. I ain't talkin Bruno Mars, you know that we do it large, it's about who did it best not who did it last in a different class. No wonder why they can't get enough.

This is more of that look but don't touch, don't watch tv watch me. My team is to much we did it our way from the jump and they can't get enough. This is more of that look but don't touch. Don't watch tv watch me, my team is to much we did it our from the jump and they can't get enough.
