

If I fell off tomorrow would you still love me (Are you down?)
 If I never got on would you still love me
 If I fall out would you try and steal from me
 If I've had too much would you take the wheel from me
 Say you only want the real from me (Are you down?)
 It's what everybody says but what nobody needs
 If you ask how you looking when you get your new jeans
 If I dont give a thumbs up are you still keen
 Let me know girl, jokes
 Ain't dumb enough to ask that
 Done tryna run game like a half back
 Tryna sit up in the box with the coach now
 And i'd be lying if I was saying I was broke now (Are you down?)
 I ain't well off either but I'm self made
 At the very least paid dues paid
 That ain't very cheap
 So tell me are you still down
 So tell me are you still down if I'm in a boujee apartment and I ain't at the Plaza?
 If it's all top shelf instead of lager
 Would the hood still listen to me after?
 Do you people really want to see me answer
 When everybody either Fetty Wap or a rasta
 It's like tomorrow can't get here any faster
 Times are changing
 Young rappers are ageing
 Becoming OG's, can't stay the same
 When I'm in a whole another place, tell me to my face, are you down

 It's so hard (are you down?)
 But you keep me right on track
 Ain't nobody got my back
 The way I know you got mine
 Are you down? (Are you down?)
 Yeah, you sine like me (oh yeah)
 But you gotta grind like me
 It's so hard, yeah yeah

 Say are you down if I had to bang street with them rocks
 Are you down if I ever got in trouble with the cops
 Say if I had to get away, would you come away
 Said are you down if there ever had to come a day
 Shit let me know, Derrick Rose how I run a play
 I'm on the road, 'bout the goal, I just wanna say
 Ay, I just wanna say
 I'm on the road, 'bout the goal, I just wanna say
 Are you down (are you down?)
 If my situation changed up
 Looking through a glass wall feeling caged up
 Would you keep me staying strong as I age up
 Girl, are you down
 Ask my brothers would they last through the favours
 Or would they only ever holla at me on occasions
 While I sit here looking life through the pages
 Tell me would you stay down through the phases
 Down through the name if I didn't have a playlist
 Or roam streets hung around with the basics

Stay down through the trials, tribulations
If I ain't rap i'd flip burgers at burger king
Are you down to tell your friends you're feeling me
Put my life on this music and feel the energy
And if I fail will I still be on your centrepiece
Or have my kid living life through his legacy
Eyes on the prize, never eyes on the enemy
They on the front, 'cause I made what I said I'd be
Shit, hold it down for the crown, it's the recipe

It's so hard (are you down?)
But you keep me right on track
Ain't nobody got my back
The way I know you got mine
Are you down? (Are you down?)
Yeah, you shine like me (oh yeah)
But you gotta grind like me
It's so hard, yeah yeah

Know my brothers, they been with me though the cold phases
You gotta be by your blessings, ain't no catching cases
I been lethal, all this pressure never got my patience
Through adolescence been representin' all I created
Feeling major
Never am I skipping pages
Is you down for me still if I wasn't the greatest?
Is you down for the thrill if I gave you a playlist?
Or wanna make you a million supplying these flavors? (are you down?)
Yeah, they be fiendin' amazement
But showing me what is real through every occasion
Older cousin was in the field, he told me to take it
Ain't no changing on how I feel, through all of this fake shit
And it's history in the making (are you down?)
We dun held it down for the set, now steppin' on stages
We plotting around the rest, beware of the danger
I've been down from the get, dividing these angles
Still it's rest in peace to my angel
I would've been on the streets or locked in a cage too
I would've been holdin' heat, or tuckin' these bad two's
But once I heard me a beat, I divided these bad rules
Steady, I be grindin' until the sun up
If I ain't boppin'
We flowin' through for the bills, ain't been changing up for the dollars
Been motivatin' the real
While we separatin' the problems

It's so hard (are you down?)
But you keep me right on track
Ain't nobody got my back
The way I know you got mine
Are you down? (Are you down?)
Yeah, you shine like me (oh yeah)
But you gotta grind like me
It's so hard, yeah yeah
