Divine Explanation

David Dunn

I won't look at the accident
Eyes can't take all the red and white
I don't care if it's obvious
I've sold away all my fight

This thought that loops over and over again
Why did this happen to me, not to them?
This thought that loops over and over again
Why did this happen to me?

Divine explanation
More beautiful than all the stars
A new revelation
A way to see these things like they are

Please observe all the hazard lights
I've hit a ditch and I'm all unaligned
But this one's deep and it's not the first one that I've fallen into
And it's gonna hurt me to crawl outside but I know I need to

This thought that loops over and over again
Why did this happen to me, not to them?
This thought that loops over and over again
Why did this happen to me?

Divine explanation
More beautiful than all the stars
A new revelation
A way to see these things like they are

All I have to do
Is ask of you
Perception comes
I'll stand there strong

It's gonna be good for you, good for me
But we just can't, we just can't see
Good for you, good for me
But we just can't, we just can't see

Divine explanation (Good for you, good for me)
More beautiful than all the stars (But we just can't, we just can't s ee)
A new revelation (Good for you, good for me)
A way to see these things like they are (But we just can't, we just c an't see)
