

Feel Again

David Dunn

There's a switch up and down it goes
And I flipped it off a long time ago
Then it stuck in that position
And now I'm wishing, I'm wishing

I could turn it back on again
All the things I used to try to end
The pain of it all, the rise and the fall
That tell me that I'm not dead

I wanna feel again, I wanna feel again
I wanna feel again, feel again

When you're numb everything is gray
And the joy and the pain feel the same
And I'm stuck in that position
So now I'm wishing, I'm wishing

That I could turn it back on again
All the things I used to try to end
The pain of it all, the rise and the fall
That tell me that I'm not dead

I wanna feel again, I wanna feel again
I wanna feel again, feel again

Can I turn it back on again
All the things I used to try to end
The pain of it all, the rise and the fall
That tell me that I'm not dead

I wanna feel again, feel again
I wanna feel again, feel again
