

Interruption

David Dunn

Spaced out in my own intentions
Face down in the fact or fiction
I prefer the comfort of my own situation

My blind eyes never payin' attention
Closed off to my own addictions
I prefer the comfort of my own situation

I want, I want, I wanna let Your love interrupt my life
I want, I want, I wanna let Your love interrupt my life

Lifeline to a new beginning
Let go cause my hands are slipping
Free fall from the comfort of my situation

I want, I want, I wanna let Your love interrupt my life
I want, I want, I wanna let Your love interrupt my life
I want, I want, I wanna let Your love interrupt my life
I want, I want, I wanna let Your love interrupt my life

You are the interruption
You are the full destruction of my house of cards
And I know You love me
I don't wanna be the way I was before

I want, I want, I wanna let Your love interrupt my life
I want, I want, I wanna let Your love interrupt my life
I want, I want, I wanna let Your love interrupt my life
I want, I want, I wanna let Your love interrupt my life
