

Lightning Storm

David Dunn

If you feel like your feelings
Tend to run your life
If you act like they're perfect
Like they never lie
And every emotion
That you've ever felt
Is a reason for action
So you tell yourself

What you feeling always real all the time?
All the time?

Ooh what do you think you know?
Are your feelings right
When they have you outside in a lightning storm?
Ooh what do you think you know?
When you say you're right
But you're standing outside in a lightning storm

So follow your feelings
And turn off your brain
You'll either stumble around
Or you'll be okay
But I got a feeling
if you open your mind
You'll see that those feelings
They change all the time

What you feeling always real all the time?
All the time?

Ooh what do you think you know?
Are your feelings right
When they have you outside in a lightning storm?
Ooh what do you think you know?
When you say you're right
But you're standing outside in a lightning storm

So stop existing for what you're feeling
Open your mind up and let the truth in
So stop existing for what you're feeling, feeling

So stop existing for what you're feeling
Open your mind up and let the truth in
So stop existing for what you're feeling, feeling

So stop existing for what you're feeling
Open your mind up and let the truth in
So stop existing for what you're feeling, feeling

So stop existing for what you're feeling
Open your mind up and let the truth in
So stop existing for what you're feeling, feeling

Ooh what do you think you know?
Are your feelings right
When they have you outside in a lightning storm?

Ooh what do you think you know?
When you say you're right
But you're standing outside in a lightning storm

Ooh what do you think you know?
Are your feelings right
When they have you outside in a lightning storm?
Ooh what do you think you know?
When you say you're right
But you're standing outside in a lightning storm
