

This Is For You

David Dunn

I'm closing my eyes
To beautiful faces
I'm bailing the ship
To new places
I'm doing all I can to keep myself locked in my own cage

I'm hitting the snooze
On a perfect morning
I give up adventure
And go for the boring
I don't like who I am, but I won't take the step I want to take

I'm anyone and everyone who never settle for a life they never wanted to live
I'm everything you hated, everything you never wanted, anyone to know you'd become

This is for you
You who are afraid to be you
This is for you

I stay on the beach
I won't go in the water
I won't take the chance
On what I've been offered
I'm doing all I can to play it safe and make sure that I'm comfortable

I'm anyone and everyone who never settle for a life they never wanted to live
I'm everything you hated, everything you never wanted, anyone to know you'd become

I'm anyone and everyone who never settle for a life they never wanted to live
I'm everything you hated, everything you never wanted, anyone to know you'd become

This is for you
You who are afraid to be you
This is for you
You who are afraid to be you
This is for you
This is for you
This is for you
This is for you

I'm anyone and everyone who never settle for a life they never wanted to live
I'm everything you hated, everything you never wanted, anyone to know you'd become

This is for you
This is for you
This is for you
This is for you

This is for you

This is for you
This is for you
You know that this is for you
You know that this is for you
