Falling in Love Again

David Gates

Just you and I, here on the shore
Wind in your hair, just like before
When I first held you tight
Promised you love, and I'd stay the night

Now even more, I long for your touch
My heart is on fire 'cause I want you so much
And I'm falling in love, falling in love again

If you belonged to somebody else
I would steal you away
Take all your love night and day
Satisfy you forever

I see your face, there in the crowd
Knowing you're mine makes me so proud
That I'm falling in love, falling in love again
Ooh, I'm falling with you, falling in love again
