

Silky

David Gates

Everybody listen
'Cause I found what I've been missing
She's oh so, so divine
And beneath the latest fashion
There's a lady filled with passion
But she's always so refined

Every time we go dancing people stop and stare, can't compare
She's making me look just like a Fred Astaire
Later on when we're alone at last
She has her way, don't dare say

Now in L.A. or Manhattan
In her roller skates or satin
She's so silky, that's her name
And not since Wendell Willkie
Has the world seen anybody like my silky
She's the one

Every time we go out the people stop and stare, can't compare
She's making me feel just like a millionaire
And if you wonder why she stays with me
Well I've got my ways, don't dare say

Hey now, everybody listen
'Cause I found what I've been missing
And she's oh so, so unique
In her Porsche or her Mercedes
She's the envy of the ladies
As the French say: Magnifique

Hey now listen
Found what I've been missing
Oh my silky, she's the one
Hey now listen
I found what I've been missing
Oh my silky, you're the one

Silky, ah
