

After You

David Guetta

Grand illusion, my delusion's what I tell your face
I swear I saw it smilin' back at me
Whiskey nights and purple lights, they try to take your place
But in the mornin', they just fade away

Nothin' is excitin', nothin' left to hide in
I can hear your heart like a scream in the silence
Every time I let go, hits me like it's violence
Cuts me like the edge of a diamond

Even if I tried
No, there ain't nobody after you
And even if I lied
No, there ain't no runnin' from the truth
And even if I tried
No, there ain't nobody after you
And even if I lied (Can't hide, no, the highest high)
No, there ain't nobody after you

In and out, I rearrange, our love I can't replace
I'll do it all and bend until I break
Up and down, I feel around, but nothin' feels the same
No, I'm never givin' up

I can hear your heart like a scream in the silence
Every time I let go, hits me like it's violence
Cuts me like the edge of a diamond

Even if I tried
No, there ain't nobody after you (Nobody after you)
And even if I lied
No, there ain't no runnin' from the truth

Even if I tried
No, there ain't nobody after you (Nobody after you)
And even if I lied
No, there ain't no runnin' from the truth
And even if my eyes
On fire, so much fire, I
Hold onto something that I'll never find
Can't hide, no, the highest high
No, there ain't nobody after you

Nobody after you
Nobody after you
Nobody after you
