

Battle

David Guetta

We don't hide, no we don't
We don't shade from anyone
'Cause you and I know better
They don't know we have eyes like mirrors
We don't need any armor
'Cause we got spirit and that's enough
So let them say whatever
It doesn't matter if tomorrow there's a war

My love, we've won
And I run, I run through the battle
Oh, I run, it doesn't matter if tomorrow never comes
My love, we've won
And I run, I run through the battle
Oh, I run to you

Oh, I run
Oh, I run

All moments on the spire
Set it off like a cannonball
We're gonna burn forever
It doesn't matter if tomorrow there's a war

My love, we've won
And I run, I run through the battle
Oh, I run, it doesn't matter if tomorrow never comes
My love, we've won
And I run, I run through the battle
Oh, I run to you

Oh, I run
Oh, I run

Oh, woah
It doesn't matter if tomorrow there's a war

My love, we've won
And I run, I run through the battle
Oh, I run, it doesn't matter if tomorrow never comes
My love, we've won
And I run, I run through the battle
Oh, I run to you

Oh, I run
Oh, I run
