

She Knows

David Guetta

She knows it, she knows it
She ain't afraid to show it, she knows it
No matter where she going
All eyes on her backside like she's Chloe, yeah
She knows it, yeah
Yeah yeah she know it
She ain't afraid to show it
She walks in the place just like she own it
No matter where she going
Got everybody focused

She knows she knows she knows
She knows
She knows she knows she knows
She knows
She knows she knows she knows
She knows
She knows she knows she knows
She knows
She knows she knows she knows

Hold it down for that baby
Get you while she drop below
Now slow it down for me lady
'Cause you making my ting grow
Who gave you that right to come and lick me like Popsicle?
Got my body tingling girl from head down to my toe

She's the one that's always in control
There's no place I wouldn't go
Chasing that loving
Chasing that loving

And she knows it, she knows it
She ain't afraid to show it, she knows it
No matter where she going
All eyes on her backside like she's Chloe, yeah
She knows it, yeah
Yeah yeah she know it
She ain't afraid to show it
She walks in the place just like she own it
No matter where she going
Got everybody focused

She knows she knows she knows
She knows
She knows she knows she knows
She knows
She knows she knows she knows
She knows
She knows she knows she knows
She knows
She knows she knows she knows

She knows she knows she knows
