

Surrender

David Guetta

You have the key, to unlock the door
I'm a "casualty" of this emotional war
Can't break the chains, but I'm the one to gain
Give it all to keep
You rock you rocking with me

And I can't escape
You gotta come my love
I'm a prisoner for you I surrender
I surrender
I surrender my love
I surrender
I surrender my heart

I can't ignore what fate has for us
Can run but cant hide
No getting away from love
My hands are tide
I'm bound to this faring
Keeps calling me
And I must get in

You gotta come my love
I'm a prisoner for you I surrender
I surrender
I surrender my love
I surrender
I surrender my heart
