

Under the Influence

David Hodges

Changing colors
Pull me closer
Far away from home
Each foot step makes
My heart less afraid
Of the unknown

Under the moon
Over my head
Under the words I heard that I said

Then it came
Like a flood rushing through my veins
I've never felt it like this
And I lose hold
Of a heart out of my control
Lost in the wonder
Under the influence of love

Each direction,
Love's reflection,
Intoxicating me.
How could one glance
Take my breath and
Make the world complete

Under the moon
Over my head
Under the words I heard that I said

Then it came
Like a flood rushing through my veins
I've never felt it like this
And I lose hold
Of a heart out of my control,
Lost in the wonder
Under the influence of love

ohhh

Under the moon,
Over my head,
Under the words I heard that I said
You're the one that I choose
As long as we have left
I am forever changed
I am forever changed

And then it came
Like a flood rushing through my veins
I've never felt it like this
And I lose hold
Of a heart out of my control
Lost in the wonder
Under the influence of love.
