Mountain Of Love

David Houston

Got a mountain of love for the girl in the valley Got an ocean of dreams for the girl in the valley Someday I will marry the girl in the valley Cause this mountain boy holds a world full of joy For the girl in the valley

Every day she goes by with her head held up high like a high st eppin' Philly

I tried every thing even bought her a ring she won't wear it She said she loves me but she's not yet quite ready to marry.
