

We Were In The War

David Keenan

We were in the war

We were in the war
The monk at the alms door
The feminist wall, the wandering hand
The 2021 almanac
We were in the war

Drink makes a poor canvas of your mind
I see now, said the blind man
I see now, said the blind man
We were in the war

The monk at the alms door
The feminist wall, the wandering hand
The 2021 almanac
We were in the war
