

Darkerside

David Kushner

Been running too long
Trying to catch my breath
There's a war up against
My heart and head
And there ain't always
Blood in a fight
But you bring me back to the light
But you bring me back to the light

Oh why, oh why
Am I standing on the edge of my Darkerside
Oh I, oh I
I know it's so wrong but it feels so right
Oh my, oh my
There's so many things I'm tempted by
But you bring me back to the light
Oh my

I'm spiraling down and out of control
There's a war no one sees inside my soul
The Lord exposes the deepest lies
And you bring me back to the light
Yeah you bring me back to the light

Oh why, oh why
Am I standing on the edge of my Darkerside
Oh I, oh I
I know it's so wrong but it feels so right
Oh my, oh my
There's so many things I'm tempted by
But you bring me back to the light

Yeah you bring me back to the light

But you bring me back to the light
Oh my
