

There's places I can't go to
There's faces I don't know anymore
There's songs that I can't listen to
'Cause they don't sound like how they did before

It gets hard sometimes when your heart's on the line
Our stars in the sky don't shine as bright anymore now

How come
Every outcome
Is one that I can't accept?
Now I'm falling out of love with myself again
I had to let you go just to let you know
I love you
But you didn't come back
I had to let you go just to let you know
I'm yours, but you didn't come back to me
Woohooohoo woohooohoo woohooohoo
I love you
Woohooohoo woohooohoo woohooohoo
I love you

There's pictures I can't look at
There's words I wish I took back
I can't keep the promises I swore
Mmhhmm
There's thoughts I try to hold back
I still love you, I hope you know that
But there's something that we just can't ignore
Not like before

It gets hard sometimes when your heart 's on the line
Our stars in the sky don't shine as bright anymore now

How come
Every outcome
Is one that I can't accept?
Now I'm falling out of love with myself again
I had to let you go just to let you know
I love you
But you didn't come back
I had to let you go just to let you know
I'm yours, but you didn't come back to me
Woohooohoo woohooohoo woohooohoo
I love you
Woohooohoo woohooohoo woohooohoo
I love you

How come
Every outcome
Is one that I can't accept?
It turns out I'm so afraid for what
I will become in the end
I had to let you go just to let you know
I love you
But you didn't come back
I had to let you go just to let you know

I'm yours, but you didn't come back to me
Woohooohoo woohooohoo woohooohoo
I love you
Woohooohoo woohooohoo woohooohoo
I love you
