

thank you

David Kushner

I've had my wrongs
But I was always so patient with us
I gave it all to you in every situation my love
So I hate you, I hate you for letting me go
'Cause I loved you, I loved you now I want you to know

That I'm hopeless
Hopeless 'cause you're all I've known
But I'm growing
Growing by myself to know
My reflection again
I didn't want this to end
But I have to say

Thank you
For letting me go
Wish I could hate you
Guess I'm not yours anymore
Can I trust again?
Can I trust again?
I don't know
Can I love again?
Can I love again?
I want you to hold me close
But I know you won't
(I know you won't)

Sometimes I wake up from a dream that we are still together
But breaking up is what you said was needed for the better
You blame me you blame me for losing control
Then betray me I should've left you long ago

I'm hopeless
Hopeless 'cause you're all I've known
But I'm growing
Growing by myself to know
My reflection again
I didn't want this to end
But I have to say

Thank you
For letting me go
Wish I could hate you
I can't be yours anymore
Can I trust again?
Can I trust again?
I don't know
Can I love again?
Can I love again?
I want you to hold me close
But I know you won't
(I know you won't)

'Cause I loved you, I'm not ready
I loved you, I'm not ready
Can I come back home?
I loved you, I'm not ready

I loved you, I'm not ready
But I'm not comin' home
'Cause you let me go
(Thank you)
