

Your Love

David Phelps

Sometimes when I'm weary
All I have for strength is You
And sometimes when I am cold
All I have to keep me warm is You
So I close my eyes
And fold my hand
And You're right there
To be my friend
Your love
Is just a prayer away
And Your love is all I need
To face another day
Sometimes when I'm lonely
All I have for company is You
Sometimes when I cry
All I have to comfort me is You
So I close my eyes
And bend my knees
And call on You
To rescue me
Your love
Is just a prayer away
And Your love is all I need
To face another day
And when someone takes a moment
Just to show they care
Oh, I know You are reaching out
To help me from there
Your love
Is just a prayer away
Your love is all I need
To face another day
Oh, all I need
To face another day
Yeah
