

One More For The Lonely Hearts Club

David Ruffin

Oooh, ooh, ooh, oooh,
While glancing thru the pages of the paper,
Wondering what was new,
I saw a ad with a promise for a lonely heart,
It sounded too good to be true,
Meet an old friend or maybe find a new love,
Its so easy to do,
I laughed when I read the last line,
It said we welcome you,
Then suddenly,
I thought to myself,

One more for the lonely hearts club,
I don't wanna be one more,
One more for the lonely hearts club,

Maybe I can find a new love,
To help me get over you,
Or maybe I can find some sweet sweet body,
To tell my troubles to,
My phone started to ring,
Ooh how I hoped it was you,
Cause I have'nt heard your sweet sweet voice,
In so long I need to hear from you darling,
How can this be,
You've gone away from me,

Seems like its one more for the lonely hearts club,
I don't wanna be,
One more for the lonely hearts club,

My nights I stay awake,
What will tomorrow bring,
They say that dreams is worth a try,
They're selling people reaching for the sky,
These are the club rules,
I just gotta pay my dues,
Cause girl I need to know from you,

If I'm one more for the lonely hearts club,
I don't wanna be,
If I'm one more for the lonely hearts club,
I don't wanna be,
One more, one more, one more,
...
