Statue Of A Fool

David Ruffin

Somewere there should be for all the world to see a staue of a fool made of stone.

An image of a man who let love slip through his hands and left him to stand here all alone.

So build a statue and oh build it high so all the world can see. and inscribe the worlds greatest fool, and name it after me.

And there on his face a gold tear should be placed to honor every tear he shed.

And i think it would show, and everyone would know, concealed inside is a broken heart.

So build a statue and oh build it high so all the world can see. and inscribe the worlds greatest fool, and name it after me.

So build a statue and oh build it high so that all the world can see. and inscribe the worlds greatest fool, and name it after me.

Yeah, and name it after me.
