

Would Be

David Ryan Harris

From 100 yards across the room
Could be wrong could be right
Anticipation and space separate us tonight
â€~Cause I've never seen anything
Quite like you in all of my life
Your like a dream underneath
Red and green party lights

I know that it may seem like I'm staring into space
But I'm at a loss for words to say
Woman read my mind (my mind)

I wonder what it would be like
To go home with you tonight
Make a wish by candlelight
That we could make the morning wait a while

Repeat

I'm so in awe and tempted to just walk away
It seems like the closer I get
I forget everything I've had to say

I know that it may seem like I'm staring into space
But I'm at a loss for words to say
Woman read my mind (my mind)

I wonder what it would be like
To got home with you tonight
Make a wish by candlelight
That we could make the morning wait
