The Bluebird

David Sneddon

Listen to your heart and not your head
I know that this is what the wise man said
Maybe he's wrong...
And all this talk of yet another war
Contradicits just what the heart is for
Just what is it for??
'Cause everybody lies
Everybody cries in the end...

But I'm like the bluebird in the sky
Ya can't drag me down 'cause I'm so high!
And you know it's easy if you try
You can let the bluebird fly so high...

HA!

Why are you waiting by the phone??!
It only ever rings when no-ones home!
So go outside
There is no reason to delay
Grab your hat. Go out. Do it today.
Go out and play
So listen to me now because if ya can't believe be afraid
'Cause everybody lies
Everybody cries in the end...

But I'm like the bluebird in the sky
Ya can't drag me down 'cause I'm so high!
And you know it's easy if you try
You can let the bluebird fly so high...

So listen to me now because if ya can't believe be afraid
'Cause everybody lies
Everybody cries in the end...

But I'm like the bluebird in the sky
Ya can't drag me down 'cause I'm so high!
And you know it's easy if you try
You can let the bluebird fly
You can let the bluebird fly
You can let the bluebird fly so high...
