When I look into your eyes
You're a blessing in disguise
Eh, you make me wanna do the ring-around the roses
And I love the way you smile
While I give it to you nice
I hold your hands
And everybody wants to hold you
When I am with you
You give me these sorts of feeling in my heart
When I see you
You give me these thoughts of tingle in my heart
When i am with you
You give me these sorts of single in my heart
When I see you
You give me these thoughts of tingle in my soul

Ekuro la labaku ewa

When I need to love

It’s you that I am loving
When I need a hug
It’s you that I am hugging
When I need a kiss
It’s your lips that I am kissing
When I need to breathe
It’s your air that I am breathing

When I need to love
It’s you that I am loving
When I need a hug
It’s you that I am hugging
When I need a kiss
It’s your lips that I am kissing
When I need to breathe
It’s your air that I am breathing
