

My Own World

Davina Michelle

I'm you're newest hometown breeze
I'm you're newest wannabe
I'm a product, I'm material
It changed the girl in me

Eyes come closer in isolation
I feel lonely in crowded places
My emotions get me frustrated
I'm the new girl with lots of faces

Sometimes when I get lonely
Dream of somebody who is not only physical
Help me with my fucked-up mind state
I'm insecure, it's keeping me up late

I'm lost in my own world
(I'm lost in my own world)
I'm lost in my own world
(I'm lost in my own world)

I'm that boss millennial
But maybe more traditional?
Oh, I get shy being around the cool kids
I'm unpredictable, oh

Eyes come closer in isolation
I feel lonely in crowded places
My emotions get me frustrated
I'm the new girl with lots of faces

Sometimes when I get lonely
Dream of somebody who is not only physical
Help me with my fucked-up mind state
I'm insecure, it's keeping me up late

I'm lost in my own world
(I'm lost in my own world)
I'm lost in my own world
(I'm lost in my own world)

I'm a lonely girl
Lost in my own world
My head's written this song
I'm up way too late
Lured in by clickbait
Tell me, what did I do wrong?
I need someone
To help me figure out
Who this girl is
And what she dreams about
Who won't judge a bit
Talk all deep and shit
Welcome to my own world

Sometimes when I get lonely
Dream of somebody who is not only physical
Help me with my fucked-up mind state

I'm insecure, it's keeping me up late

I'm lost in my own world
(I'm lost in my own world)
I'm lost in my own world
(I'm lost in my own world)
