

Out Loud

Davina Michelle

I've seen it all but suddenly my sight is blurred
I've thought it all but never put it into words
I've heard it all, now who is gonna say it first
Take a turn
Throw the dirt
Though I don't want your heart to hurt

Cause you are like no other
You're my best friend
But I don't need a brother
I need bad romance
I rather see you're jealous than indifferent
It's all been said
In my head

But can I say it all out loud
Can I look at you and shout
About my pain and all my doubts
Can I say it all
All out loud

I've felt, I've smelled, I've tasted love but where is it now
It's like I'm in our dining room with someone else
You figured it out
What stays in your mouth is safe and sound
Don't walk out
Turn around
Cause I wanna talk about

How you are like no other, we have chemistry
So we don't need that doctor with her therapy
If we'd just communicate
Please talk to me
Has all been said in my head

But can I say it all out loud
Can I look at you and shout
About my pain and all my doubts
Can I say it all
All out loud
And can you think out loud for me
What would you say to stop me from leaving
Or would you watch me go quietly
Can we say it all
All out loud

Take a turn
Take a turn
Throw the dirt
Throw the dirt
Tear me up
Let me burn
I will listen
I will learn
So go ahead
Go ahead
Go and say the things you never said

All the thoughts that kill you in your head
I promise I'll understand

But can I say it all out loud
Can I look at you and shout
About my pain and all my doubts
Can I say it all
All out loud
