

Compromise

Dawin

Oh, yeah

Compromise
If you want it bad
You gotta compromise
Compromise
If we want this to work
We gotta compromise

Don't reroute my path and cause a delay
If you don't plan to stay
'Cause I connected with you in a spiritual way
And changed right away (pull up, yeah)

Had a different shawty Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday
But this the type of shit I really wanted in the first place
But now you overthinkin' decisions without your brain
You're impulsive and hardly sane
But I don't complain, yuh

Even though I'm solid and I have ya back
I won't let you treat me like just another stat
Canceled all my booty calls cause that ain't what I need
Stop testing the waters if you don't want something deep, yeah
Even though I'm solid and I have ya back
I can't be the band-aid to cover up your past
Block all of your exes if you ready to move on
Gotta compromise if you don't wanna get this wrong

Compromise
If you want it bad
You gotta compromise
Compromise
If we want this to work
We gotta compromise

Shawty, I'm down for a midnight drive to eternity
That's on G.O.D. (yuh)
And I'm waitin' for you to match this energy
Tell me what it's gonna be

I could fuck you slowly Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday
'Cause this the type of shit I really wanted in the first place
But now you overthinkin' decisions without your brain
You're impulsive and hardly sane
But I don't complain, yuh

Even though I'm solid and I have ya back
I won't let you treat me like just another stat
Canceled all my booty calls cause that ain't what I need
Stop testing the waters if you don't want something deep, yeah
Even though I'm solid and I have ya back
I can't be the band-aid to cover up your past
Block all of your exes if you ready to move on
Gotta compromise if you don't wanna get this wrong

Compromise

If you want it bad
You gotta compromise
Compromise
If we want this to work
We gotta compromise

All of my exes and hoes
Getting no X's and O's
'Cause all of that bullshit got old
Girl, you the vibe that I chose
And you already know what's the word
Tell 'em boys do not disturb
Girl, fuckin' with me, you're secured
But you really don't seem too sure

Said, all of my exes and hoes
Getting no X's and O's
Cause all of that bullshit got old
Girl, you the vibe that I chose
Only way for us to win
Is to go all the way in
But it won't work if you overthink

Even though I'm solid and I have ya back
I won't let you treat me like just another stat
Canceled all my booty calls cause that ain't what I need
Stop testing the waters if you don't want something deep, yeah
Even though I'm solid and I have ya back
I can't be the band-aid to cover up your past
Block all of your exes if you ready to move on
Gotta compromise if you don't wanna get this wrong
