

Prima Donna

Dawin

Ooo, You either with me or against me, yeah
Cause switching sides is never trendy no
You sold your soul for some Fendi
How could you be my soulmate if you're empty
I just keep on wishing you would change
Obviously our heart is not the same
Insecurity run through your veins
So you run to the store to hide the pain

Prima Donna, doing what you wanna
In your brand new bag, running up the commas
Prima Donna, you got it from ya momma
You too high to even tell I'm tryna holla
You see I keep my waves on smooth
And my J's brand new,
But your mind is on the drama
Prima Donna, doing what you wanna
You came up by scamming all the ballers

Check you I had to check you
Cause you be talking to me 'brazy' like I'm the next dude
And I be telling you to change shit, you need to change shit
If you wanna be in the squad you can't be on that lame shit
You the type to turn me up just to get me in the mood
But if you ain't with the shits, get the fuck up out my coupe
Yeah attention is your drug, you keep switching up your plug
I got everything in stock but for you it ain't enough, ain't enough

Ooo, You either with me or against me, yeah

Uptown you be in uptown,
Drinking with your other girls showing off ya buss down
Acting up like you a actress you ain't no actress
But I forget about the drama when we on a mattress
You the type to turn me up just to get me in the mood
But if you ain't with the shits, get the fuck up out my coupe
Yeah attention is your drug, you keep switching up ya plug
I got everything in stock but for you it ain't enough, ain't enough, yeah

Tryna save you from the streets like I'm Hercules

Ooo but you keep bringing out the worst in me
Took you from your bad mood to the Beverly
Ooo you still be acting like the enemy
Tryna save you from the streets like I'm Hercules
Ooo but you keep bringing out the worst in me
I might treat you like Cristal temporarily
But I got a couple bitches I call Hennessy

Prima Donna, doing what you wanna
In your brand new bag, running up the commas
Prima Donna, you got it from ya momma
You too high to even tell I'm tryna holla
You see I keep my waves on smooth
