

Pawns Of The Wretched

Dawn of Ashes

I call your heart a void because you've been reprogrammed - And you're dying inside
You have no knowledge of your own path - And you're dying inside Your existence is to follow the thoughts of others - and you're dying inside
Shallow and empty
There is nothing inside
The filth of society
No hope for a new day is a place of corruption
You rot from within
Your values are dead and you're dead to the world
I call your heart a void because you've been reprogrammed - and
you're dying inside
A machine that was taught to follow - and you're dying inside
You praise the laws of the wretched - and you're dying inside
Shallow and empty
There is nothing inside.
The filth of society
No hope for a new day is a place of corruption
You rot from within
Your values are dead and you're dead to the world
You're fucking dead
