

Sparks flow through the tunnels of Set
Illuminating through the nightside roots
Vast caverns through unconscious development
The shadow spirit reborn

The other side
Departed from the unity of God
The other side
Sitra Ahra!

The sparks fell deep into the abyss of the inverted tree
Materializing the elements from the daemonic nature
Creating the forces of the nightside
To cut the cord and steal the Throne of God
To steal the Throne of God
To steal the Throne of God
To steal the Throne of God
To steal the Throne of God

Sparks flow through the tunnels of Set
Reincarnation from the dark forces
Purification from the mighty fall
The shadow spirit reborn

The other side
Departed from the unity of God
The other side
Sitra Ahra!

The sparks fell deep into the abyss of the inverted tree
Materializing the elements from the daemonic nature
Creating the forces of the nightside
To cut the cord and steal the Throne of God
To steal the Throne of God
To steal the Throne of God
To steal the Throne of God
To steal the Throne of God
