

Fire

Dawn of Destiny

I never tell you the prehistory
My life's been a dirty wild whore
My life remains a big black mystery
Nothing to live or die for.

Someone took hold of my deeds and my will
Some guys who promised that much
But now as I'm wiser, I know that they kill
No one to love or to touch.

Fire - has burned it all down
Where is the love - my world's full of hate
Pieces - of my life left behind
Only your love saves our here and our now

They took me out of my miserable life
Pretended to be by my side
I felt desire to throw my past behind
To follow with all of my might
It all happened long before I have met you
The love that I never have felt
I wish and I pray you'll never find out
The girl that you don't use to know.
Fire - has burned it all down
Where is the love - my world's full of hate
Pieces - of my life left behind
Only your love saves our here and our now.

If I had the chance to make it all undone
My life I would give then away
I am to blame and it is still a shame
But I hope that you're gonna stay.

Fire - has burned it all down
Where is the love - my world's full of hate
Pieces - of my life left behind
Only your love saves our here and our now.
