

Dream

Dawn of Solace

In the furnace, the forge of sleep
In dream and waking
Heartbeats and hammer strokes
Slumber in a self-made pyre
Dreams slowly breaking apart
Heart weeps and hammer blows

Ages into aeons beyond
Until dust remade brighter than the stars
Ages into aeons beyond
Until dust remade brighter than the stars

In the endless ocean in the dark
Undying devotion for the dark

Ages into aeons beyond
Until dust remade brighter than the stars
Ages into aeons beyond
Until dust remade brighter than the stars

Dream like an endless ocean
Dream like a sea
Endless currents carry me
Dream like a fiery ocean
Fires wide like the sea
Where endless flames sear me
