

Erase

Dawn of Solace

Follow the way of the failure
Defeat that confronts no defiance
Non-fulfillment that crushes
Despairing destination

And each step that you take
Fearless strides towards the fated fall
The path that has been chosen
Trail towards the end

Erase all faults
Wipe away all the blame
The guilt that devours the light
Hate that bleeds me dry
Erase all faults
Wipe away all the shame
Peel away the layers of filth
And nothing remains

Purge with fire
Burn the layers of skin
Where the filth lies within
False words, denial
Set the reflexes free
Strip the roles that deceive

Erase all faults
Wipe away all the blame
The guilt that devours the light
Hate that bleeds me dry
Erase all faults
Wipe away all the shame
Peel away the layers of filth
And nothing remains
