

The Dancer

Dawn Richard

You fell a long way
You fell from the sky with your broken wings
'Cause you danced with the Devil and lost your way

They told you you're good
Ignore all your shame
So you danced with the Devil and lost your way

Heaven was yours but you let it slip away
'Cause you danced with the Devil and lost your way
'Cause you danced with the Devil and lost your way
Your way

'Cause you danced with the Devil and lost
