

40 Days 40 Nights

Dax

I been fasting, I ain't eating
They sleep on me so fuck it I ain't sleeping
7 days without work makes one week
I ain't weak, I don't break so I'm working through the weekends
I need to get a separate crib for my achievements
And some lasik for those people who would say they couldn't see it
Had to leave that life they got left while I got right

Fuck a thot, call a plumber if you need some pipe
I'm strapped up with a mic dildoeing a dike
23 flows I get you served like a fucking spike
Handling these bars like that thing on a fucking bike
These niggas saying amen like they seeing Christ
'Cause I'm not human gimme space you got no life
People watch me I would never, I don't got the time

Never gave a fuck about fame or being rich
If niggas disrespect my name, I ain't saying shit
I ain't pussy, I let God handle battles and when's karma 360's
I laugh and say "Ain't that a bitch"
Don't compare me to people doing it for clicks
I am not the average, I averaged 26
6 boards, no assists, but still passing on you niggas
So when you playing my game, it's no wonder that you shooting bricks
Keep it pushing please you are not in my league
I'm independently doing numbers you cannot conceive
I approve my own budget, then disperse it to me
Then give a fractions of the profits to the rest of the team
You can deny it all you want, I'm in league on my own
I don't flex unless I speak on how I got it alone
My motivation providing the people substance
And you can hate it or love it, but I know that you still playing my songs
It's Dax yeah

I been fasting, I ain't eating

Don't sit at my table while I'm eating
Take the food off my plate while they reaching
That's why I'm cautious with the company I'm keeping
I don't wanna make friends unless we fight the same demons
I'm just a product of my pain, can you blame me?
I just be talking to this cup like, can you save me?
My life a movie everybody tryna play me
But I never take defeat because I made it out the pavement
I see snakes in the grass, goats in the studio
Nobody really knows anybody, that's just for you to know
I'm serving solo dolo everybody 'cause I been through the most
I'm focused on the grind, got no time to be with a groupie hoe
I'm curvin' her ass, bitch I pass

My diamonds like glass, I paid cash
Me I take chance, I make plans
Minding my ways, smoking my gas
Yeah

I been fasting, I ain't eating
They sleep on me so fuck it I ain't sleeping
7 days without work makes one week
I ain't weak, I don't break so I'm working through the weekends

40 days, 40 nights, 40 tries to get it right
People see you shine 1st instincts to dim your light
People tried to crucify, destroy me in the public eye
But I ain't catching feelings 'cause I'm too busy catching flights
Bitch I got different goals
I'm the plug, I'm electric when I'm hitting the whole
I'm inspired by the greats I'm young enough to know
Who paved the way but old enough to see I'm paving the road
So get the fuck off my dick
My materials real not materialistic
I only listen to myself this other music's toxic
My flow is so fucking dirty I'mma have to mop shit
And you ain't fucking with my spirit unless you fly cockpit, stop it
I don't give a fuck if I'm ever considered popping
The road less travelled is the one that I'm walking
Self made paid, let 'em hate fuck I don't care
Skipped the escalator turned left, took the stairs
Peace

I been fasting, I ain't eating
