

So Many Tears

Dax

If you got a dream, please go chase him
What you do is sittin' watchin' other niggas make it
What you do is wakin' up to women who were naked
Who ain't doing shit but adding on the secondary payments
Ladies, lately you can tryna play me
Took my ass to court and try to tell 'em I was crazy
Said you would abort if I [?] have to waitin'
So I took you back to court because I have to save my baby baby baby baby ba by
Ha-ha it's Dax, nigga

I got so many dreams, I wanna see me make it
So many different things, so many different places
I got so many dreams, I wanna see me make it
So many different things, so many

The Dax crackin', your dream wastin', you wack
The dream chasin' we on, no dream pacin' it's track
Pac got me on, the fiends now on my back
The fiends now on a song, they don't know how to act, nigga
I got it crackin', no sponsor, whippin' [?] for commas
So if you makin' excuses nigga, you brought 'em upon ya
Nigga probably don't wanna, get involved with the drama
I see you hatin' debatin', how I got it hot like a sauna
Yeah huh nigga, it's Dax

I got so many dreams, I wanna see me make it
So many different things, so many different places
I got so many dreams, I wanna see me make it
So many different things, so many

Last verse, so you niggas understand
I am not a profit, I can tell you what the plan
I am not a genie, I can turn you to a man
All I'm here to do is tell you that you motherfuckin' can
That you can if you choose to
I was once lost, now I'm found, got a blue screw
Went it all 'cause hands down now I'm used to the dough
Once you get to winning everybody show you love, nigga
You need different goals, different flows, different hoes, different shows
Everybody fuckin' knows, how this thing really goes
All we tryna do is win
So if you take a kneel, nigga try this shit again
Huh ha-ha, it's Dax, nigga

I got so many dreams, I wanna see me make it
So many different things, so many different places
I got so many dreams, I wanna see me make it
So many different things, so many

Get your ass up nigga
Chase your goals
You only get one chance
It's Dax, so Daxmix
