

Cornerstone

Day of Fire

All other ground is sinking sand
A doubting maze of desert land
Where darkness rules the heart of man
Til the Son shines light on him

Lord of all
Show You're strong
On our knees we fall
Be a cornerstone
Be a cornerstone
Be the rock higher than I
Be my fortress wall
Be a foundation for all, my cornerstone

The buildings swaying in the wind
The towers crumble down again
This certainly will be the end
Of them not built on Him

Lord of all
Show You're strong
On our knees we fall
Be a cornerstone
Be a cornerstone
Be the rock higher than I
Be my fortress wall
Be a foundation for all, my cornerstone

You, You are the builder of my heart
You've held me together from the start

Be a cornerstone
Be a cornerstone
Be the rock higher than I
Be my fortress wall
Be a foundation for all, my cornerstone
(2x)

Be a foundation for all, my cornerstone
