

As You Are

Day Wave

I'm waking up to help
You took away the feeling
When you wanted me to come down
I put myself beneath it all
And my life, is speeding after you
And I want to slow it down
You're not quite so alone this time
But I'm there to sound it out

You're so calm, the way you talk around me
Is making us collapse (here once again babe)
I feel numb, I'm over your surroundings
And I'm missing what I had (stay as you are)

Just like a dove, I promised I would change
And you trusted me a little bit
We're always spinning out, it's like I regret it all
'Cause you're still, the same way you always were
And I wanna see it right
So I guess, it's up to me to change, it's what I tell myself

You're so calm, the way you talk around me
Is making us collapse (here once again babe)
I feel numb, I'm over your surroundings
And I'm missing what I had (stay as you are)
Just like a dove, just like a dove
