

Crush

Day Wave

You and I aren't so different
At all at all
We've been saying the same thing
All along
I think now that it's gone
I'll never predict what was wrong
You and I aren't the same
At all at all

If I saw you alone
I know it's just I'm not awake anymore
If I had in my hand
All I did wrong
I'd crush it to death

And I try not to feel like
It all goes wrong
But I'll come back around
The sky won't fall
And the day won't come down
And I won't feel what's on the ground
I've been saying the same thing
All along

If I saw you alone
I know it's just I'm not awake anymore
If I had in my hand
All I did wrong
I'd crush it to death

I think everything's fine
It all feels right
I'll just stay here awhile
