

Where Do You Go

Day Wave

Don't wait up
Cuz I'll say
We never should go
I'm stuck in this place
We always did know
But you never did stall
I feel it all enough
For the both of us now
I'll stay behind so
You can find home
On your own

And if you ever feel down let go
Maybe it's the things that
You still had a hold of
It's never gonna be right
I know you wanna hold tight
And I
I always could see your face
You're hiding the emotion
That they put into place
It's never gonna seem right
I'm holding on so tight
(Cuz we are lost)

Are we gonna try again
I feel so off lately
I messed up

Save up
I'm still beneath you
Sit back
I'm not willing too
Always I want better for you
(Want better for you
I don't wanna follow you)
Held back tears
When I waited for days
Felt down
In so many old ways
I regret what happened to you

And if you ever feel down let go
Maybe it's the things that
You still had a hold of
It's never gonna be right
I know you wanna hold tight
And I
I always could see your face
You're hiding the emotion
That they put into place
It's never gonna seem right
I'm holding on so tight
(Cuz we are lost)

(Move slow)

Where do you go?

(Let me know where you wanna go)
(Let me know where you wanna go)
(Let me know where you wanna go)

Where do you go?

(Let me know where you wanna go)
(Let me know where you wanna go)
(Let me know where you wanna go)
Where do you go?

And if you ever feel down let go
Maybe it's the things that
You still had a hold of
It's never gonna be right
I know you wanna hold tight
And I
I always could see your face
You're hiding the emotion
That they put into place
It's never gonna seem right
I'm holding on so tight

(Let me know where you wanna go)
(Let me know where you wanna go)
(Let me know where you wanna go)
(Let me know where you wanna go)
(Let me know where you wanna go)
(Let me know where you wanna go)
