

Day Ones

DAY26

Day ones
Day ones
Day ones
Day ones
You only had to say once
You were gonna hold me down
When the stormy days come
Most of them don't stick around
All I know for sure
Through it all you've been my
Day ones
Day ones
Day ones
Day ones

Been a few Day 2's
Most of them come and go
But you still stayed true
When it mattered the most
All I know for sure
Through it all you've been my
Day ones
Day ones
Day ones
Day ones

Lately I been thinkin', now it's time I make it known
Thought you were the co-star, but you were directing all along

Never would've made it on my own
Really held me down, you kept us strong
By my side, you never left me alone

Never felt this before
You're the definition of
Loyalty and ride or die
Nothing like it's nothing that I can't accomplish
With you by my side
Now I thank you for Being someone I can depend on
I should've been known
You've been my Day one all along

You only had to say once
You were gonna hold me down
When the stormy days come
Most of them don't stick around
All I know for sure
Through it all you've been my
Day ones
Day ones
Day ones
Day ones

Been a few Day 2's
Most of them come and go

When it mattered the most
All I know for sure
