

For Me

DAY26

Never before have I felt a love for me so pure
Something 'bout the way you show me
That I can feel a connection like nothing before
Every day it just keeps growing

Deeper
Stronger
With you, I feel like I belong
To something bigger
Taller than a mountain top
My love for you ain't gonna stop

'Cause you show me that you're for me
Nobody else really for me
I know for certain and surely
That you were created for me
'Cause you show me that you're for me
Nobody else really for me
I know for certain and surely
That you were created for me

Now that I'm here staring you in your face
I feel so safe
Like how you feel for me won't fade away like the lines in the sand
I know our love will withstand
Waves crashing, pulling us

Deeper
Stronger
With you, I feel like I belong
To something bigger
Taller than a mountain top
My love for you ain't gonna stop

'Cause you show me that you're for me
Nobody else really for me
I know for certain and surely
That you were created for me
'Cause you show me that you're for me
Nobody else really for me
I know for certain and surely
That you were created just for me

Never before have I felt a love for me so pure
