

Impossible

DAY26

Impossible [x8]

Flashbacks

Ive have

They go from night into that day

It is the only way I see you

I am

Haunted

By all the ways I went astray

Nobody ever tries to match you

They don't try, all they really do is use and abuse

Couldn't be you if they wanted to

Now I'm crying cuz I see how bad I needed you, I needed you,

I know I can't be where you are

But I'm still wishing on a star

For the impossible, (the impossible, the impossible, the impossible)

Cuz I'm missing you (missing you girl)

I'm missing you (I'm missing you)

Your heart was mine,

And I lost it right before my eyes

And the only one to blame is me yeah

Made my mistakes

I tried to change

But I left my new girl a day too late

No one will ever love me like you do

They don't try, all they really do is use and abuse

Couldn't be you if they wanted to

Now I'm crying cuz I'm seeing how bad I needed you, I needed you,

I need you

I know I cant be where you are

But I'm still wishing on a star

For the impossible, (impossible, impossible, impossible)

Cuz I'm missing you (missing you girl)

I'm missing you (I'm missing you)

I'm missing you

Even though I can't be with you

I can't

But I think

I'll see

I'll dream

Of a better love when I had my way

My way

My way

I know I cant be where you are

But I'm still wishing on a star

For the impossible, (impossible, impossible, impossible)

Cuz I'm missing you (missing you girl)

I'm missing you (I'm missing you)
