

Old Thing Back

DAY26

Lying here
All alone
Been a while
Since your name popped up in my phone

It's amazing
That I feel
What I felt back then, it's unreal

Let you talk like you used to
We can joke, we can laugh like we used to
But it's not like it used to be
Ain't nobody but you or me

This time ain't got nobody we belong to
Nobody else we goin' home to
This time ain't got no one to hurt
This time around we can make it work

Baby, we can get that old thang back
Turn an old flame to the real thang
I know they say you shouldn't go back
But we can tell them they don't know a damn thing
We got our old thing back

Waking up
Next to you
Knowing we ain't gotta rush back home
Lying here
In my arms
Is the place that you belong

Ain't gotta worry 'bout nobody else calling you
Ain't gotta look over our shoulders, girl
Who knew that we would get it right eventually
Except for you and me

This time ain't got nobody we belong to
Nobody else we goin' home to
This time ain't got no one to hurt
This time around we can make it work

Baby, we can get that old thang back
Turn an old flame to the new thang
I know they say you shouldn't go back
But we can tell them they don't know a damn thing
We got our old thing back

Now I wanna give you
All the love I have inside

So what we have can grow
And we don't have to let it go

Will you
Make a promise we gon' stick it out
You're the one for me without a doubt

You're the one for me
Girl, I hope that you believe

This time ain't got nobody we belong to
Nobody else we goin' home to
This time ain't got no one to hurt
This time around we can make it work

Baby, we can get that old thang back
Turn an old flame to the real thang
I know they say you shouldn't go back
But we can tell them they don't know a damn thing
We got our old thing back

Girl
That old thing back
