

Over You

DAY26

Can't sleep, been in my head all night
Fingers typing, they got their own mind
Whole discussion inside my own mind

Calm down
Keep it cool
What you tryna get into
Think it over, tryna prevent me
Coming up like a big fool
Just because I ain't with you
Doesn't mean that I don't miss you, so true

Neither one of us settled down for real
Is it fear of commitment?
Are we keeping it real?
Maybe because we're hiding everything that we feel for us
Scared to say that we're still in love
After all this time
It's been hard to find
Close to you and I
Now I realize

Maybe 'cause I always knew
It was always you
Now we're overdue
For an everlasting love, it's true
It was always you
Gotta face the truth
'Cause I'll never be over you

I can't believe I just said it
Soon as I finish texting, I know I'm prolly gonna regret it
I know I seen that you read it
When you say that you feel it too, I dead it

Neither one of us settled down for real
Is it fear of commitment?
Are we keeping it real?
Maybe because we're hiding everything that we feel for us
Scared to say that we're still in love
After all this time
It's been hard to find
Close to you and I
Now I realize

Maybe 'cause I always knew
It was always you
Now we're overdue
For an everlasting love, it's true
It was always you
Gotta face the truth
'Cause I'll never be over you

I ain't tryna think about the worst case
You
Put me in my feelings in the first place
I

Still remember you

Told me that you love me

And I'm feeling like it's still the truth
You don't wanna say you feel it too but

It's time to stop pretending
Something that I never should've mentioned

Maybe 'cause I always knew
It was always you
Now we're overdue
For an everlasting love, it's true
It was always you
Gotta face the truth
'Cause I'll never be over you
