

Relatable

DAY26

I know that we're strangers
You want me to blow this bag on you, I know
Yeah
We ain't gotta say a word
Because we know all the things we're here to do in this private room

You got the answers, babe
To all I wanna know

No catching feelings, babe
This isn't personal
And that's the way it goes
Maybe we should start this over

'Cause me alone with you ain't doin' you and me no good

We both should know
We ain't supposed to
Let it be something
But somehow we got emotional

The tension grows
I can't take no more
Can we go?

Can we make this relatable?
Try not to lose control
But it ain't the same no more
'Cause we made this
Yeah, we made this
Relatable
Can we make this relatable?
Try not to lose control
But it ain't the same no more
'Cause we made this
Yeah, we made this

Can't act like this
Won't break her heart
You're not to blame
I played my part
Took a vow that I'll be true
But I found out
Just some things that love would do

A fun fact remains
This game we play
Got us in a predicament that's a damn shame
I think it's best I be on my way
'Cause me alone with you ain't doin' me and you no good

And we should know
We ain't supposed to

Let it be something
But somehow we got emotional
The tension grows

I can't take no more

Can we go?

Can we make this relatable?
Try not to lose control
But it ain't the same no more
'Cause we made this
Yeah, we made this
Relatable
Can we make this relatable?
Try not to lose control
But it ain't the same no more
'Cause we made this
Yeah, we made this
